THE PORTE'S POLICY

Suspiciously Construed by the British.—It Means to Aid the Egyptians.

Arabi Pacha's Proclamation—Aboukir Garrison Surrendered.

A Kentucky Desperado Done up—A Rapist Shot and Fatally Injured.

Disastrous Fire at New York City—Many Persons Perish in the Flames.

Surrender of the Garrison. [By Cable to the Sentinel.] ALEXANDRIA, July 31.—An unconfirmed report prevails that the garrison of Aboukir has surrendered to the British.

WAITING FOR ENLIGHTENMENT. A traveler just arrived from Siout reports that Arabi Pacha has issued a manifesto declaring that the khedive had sold Egypt to the British and retired to England. Arabi therefore ordered the people to obey him until the prophet enlightens him to find a worthier khedive.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER. Arabi Pacha is still parleying with the khedive. The latter has intimated that no terms would be acceptable except unconditional surrender.

THE PACHA'S FAMILY. Arabi Pacha's whole family is located in a village a few miles from Ismailia.

DONE UP. Midshipman Dechair, of the iron-clad Alexandria, sent to Ramleh Saturday morning with a message, has not been heard of.

WENT TOO FAR. It seems that Midshipman Dechair stepped beyond the lines and was taken a prisoner.

HORSES AND CAMELS. Six muddies of upper Egypt have been ordered to supply 500 horses and 650 camels for the force of Arabi Pacha.

FREQUENT MURDERS. Murders are constantly occurring in railway trains. The mob search every train for Christians.

DIPLOMATIC INSTRUCTIONS. The commander of the German gunboat Mowee, at Port Said, has been instructed on no account to land troops, but if necessary to take German subjects aboard his vessel. Detachments were landed at Ismailia from English and French men-of-war. The German consul general will depart on a leave of absence to-morrow. There now only remain French, Italian and diplomatic agents at Alexandria.

Wants a Definite Declaration. [By Cable to the Sentinel.] CONSTANTINOPLE, July 31.—Lord Dufferin says the Porte, by its inactivity, compelled England to assume alone the task of restoring order in Egypt, but England accepts Turkish co-operation provided the Porte makes an unambiguous declaration of its intentions.

The Porte's Intervention Means British Exclusion. [By Cable to the Sentinel.] LONDON, July 31.—The Times says: "We have ample reason for believing that the expedition the Porte is now determined to send to Egypt has no other object than to thwart and oppose the efforts England is now making to restore order there. Co-operation might be accepted if Turkey should send a moderate contingent, to act under the orders of the British commander. The obvious design of Turkey is to exclude England altogether and to maintain that we have no right in Egypt. It is, therefore, more trifling to continue negotiations for the purpose of getting such worthless pledges of good faith as a proclamation against Arabi Pacha. It is for the British cabinet to show that it appreciates the gravity of the situation and to devise a measure for guarding the national interests and for the vindication of the national honor, both of which are in serious jeopardy."

The Latest Convention. [By Cable to the Sentinel.] LONDON, July 31.—The Times says: "The latest convention of the Porte is to send a contingent of 10,000 men to Egypt, to be commanded by a British officer."

Jarrett, and about 250 delegates from the iron and steel works throughout the country are here to attend the annual convention of the amalgamated association of iron workers beginning to-morrow and lasting probably a week. The sessions will be secret. There will be an election of officers and several changes in the constitution be made. All delegates seem more than ever determined to stick out for their original demand and feel confident of success. They state that twenty-three mills have resumed work at their terms and only one with non-union men.

A Desperado Killed. [By Telegraph to the Sentinel.] BARDSTOWN, Ky., July 31.—Isaac Wilson, a desperado, was shot and instantly killed by Charles Miller yesterday. Wilson made a murderous assault on Miller, and the shooting was in self-defense.

Revenge on the Insult. [By Telegraph to the Sentinel.] FRANKFORT, Ky., July 31.—Chas. Price was fatally shot at his cabin yesterday by his neighbor, Frank Stanley. Stanley had just been informed of an attempted outrage by Price upon his (Stanley's) daughter, and the shooting was to revenge this injury. Price's little girl was also dangerously wounded by one of Stanley's balls.

An Alarming Fire—Lives Probably Lost. [By Telegraph to the Sentinel.] NEW YORK, July 31.—The extensive flouring mills of Hecker & Co., 205 to 265, inclusive, Cherry street, burned this morning. Five hundred men employed in the building ran for exit and it is believed that all escaped, but the flames spread so rapidly there may have been some lives lost.

LATER. The Express says: "On what floor the flames started and how they began cannot at present be ascertained. Truman's building was soon a mass of flames that arose a distance of 100 feet above the roof. The heat was so intense that the people living in tenement houses across the street were obliged to fly for their lives, leaving all their household effects behind, the unfortunate occupants left their houses none too soon, for the flames shot to the opposite side of Cherry street and in less time than it takes to write it, the conflagration had wrapped at least fifteen houses in flames extending from 194 up to Pike street, and continuing for several houses beyond that thoroughfare. While the flames were burning with terrific fury at the flour mills the walls fell in, killing two firemen. At the same time it became known that four of the factory hands had perished in the flames. It was currently reported at the time that a number of those residing in tenement houses across the street were unable to escape and were among the dead."

OUR OWN STATE. The oat crop in Pike county averages forty bushels to the acre. The farmers of Spencer county were never known to be in a better fix than at present.

Mark Bond, a wealthy farmer living at Millersburg, northwest of Centerville, was found dead in bed on Thursday morning. Cause of death unknown.

Enoch Colby, of Portland, fell from a ladder Thursday and fractured his skull. His recovery is doubtful as he is 68 years of age.
